Class of '70

Excelsior! The senior class motto was echoed throughout the year as the class of '70 attained new heights. While President Donn Harms strove for excellence, other officers; Vice-President Gary Denton, Secretary April Speck, and Treasurer Ginger Hyndman, worked to support and unify the class. Under the direction of Mr. Bierman, the officers guided the class to a successful year.

The Magazine Sale set the mood, as the seniors surpassed all previous classes. A total of $9,300 was received from sales. Hard work and determination then resulted in the first off campus Senior Day. "Snow Ball" was held at Wrightwood and was an exciting and different Senior Day.

The exciting year was concluded with the class' traditional Senior Prom. Held at the Biltmore Hotel's Blue Room, the dance was a fitting celebration for the graduating class.

Many of those responsible for the year's events were those members of the Senior Class Council. It was comprised of one representative from each government class. These students helped to convey the ideas of the students, which were so important in making this a successful senior year.
